

Barriers to Accessing Services for Victims of Human Trafficking

Presentation of Research Findings

Trafficked persons have a right to assistance under international law. However, having a right to assistance and being able to access it are two very different things. Come and find out some of the difficulties that trafficked persons face when trying to access services in Australia.

Monday August 27, 2012
2pm

Venue:

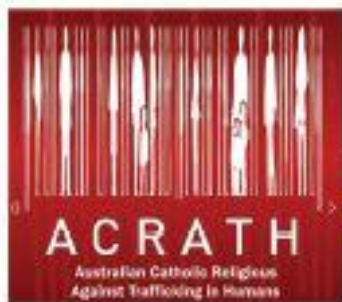

Catholic Religious Australia (CRA)
Meeting Room
36 Collins Street
Annandale, NSW 2038

Presenter:

Brianna Lee
PhD Candidate
Murdoch University School of Law

Light refreshments and drinks will be provided after presentation

RSVP by August 20, 2012
briannalee@iinet.net.au

www.acrath.org.au
People are NOT for sale

MURDOCH
UNIVERSITY
PERTH, WESTERN AUSTRALIA