

Join ACRATH and the international community for 16 days of activism against gender-based violence.

The campaign looks at the different forms of violence that women and girls face. The 2016 theme is:

'From peace in the home to peace in the world: make education safe for all!'

November 25 is the start of the United Nations-declared 16 Days of Activism Against Gender Violence Campaign, finishing on December 10 – Human Rights Day.

Human trafficking is one of the greatest examples of violence against women and girls. Human trafficking is a $150 billion global industry – and growing. As well, millions of women and girls are forced to work in terrible conditions for little, or no, pay and no chance of an education.
