

Join ACRATH and the international community for 16 days of activism against gender-based violence.

The campaign looks at the different forms of violence that women and girls face. The 2019 theme is:

Together We can End Gender Based Violence in World of Work

November 25 is the start of the United Nations-declared 16 Days of Activism Against Gender Violence Campaign, finishing on December 10—Human Rights Day.

Human trafficking is one of the greatest examples of violence against women and girls. Human trafficking is a $150 billion global industry — and growing. As well, millions of women and girls are forced to work in terrible conditions for little, or no, pay and no chance of an education.
