

RUNNING SHEET
FOR USE OF
2020 ACRATH-DEVELOPED FORCED MARRIAGE PRESENTATION
MP3 36:25 MINS

The following running sheet provides a break-down of the Video content for use for groups who may benefit from a 'pause & discuss' method of learning. It allows a group facilitator to use the video resource in a deconstructed manner, so that group participants can systematically process the content. Please note additional points to discuss which are in italics in the running sheet below

Timing start	Video Focus on forced marriage	Points suggested to raise in discussion
00:00	Video introduction	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Emphasising adult audience - generally for workplace professionals
00:50	Purpose of this video learning resource	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 4 Basic Foundations underpinning working with forced marriage victim/survivors Victim-centric approach to prevention, protection, support Advocacy is another support – voice of the often voiceless
1:40	Context within Human Trafficking and Modern Slavery framework	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Human Trafficking and Modern Slavery Forced marriage is a slavery-like practice Forms of Modern Slavery
2:20	Clips 1 & 2 to help us understand the territory of Modern Slavery within which forced marriage is categorised	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Clip 1 - Salvation Army Clip 2 - Australian Red Cross
6:40	How is forced marriage categorised under Australian Law? Note: Being forced to marry without giving full and free consent, not having the capacity to understand marriage and consent, being under 16 yrs cannot consent	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Difference between arranged marriage (legal in Australia) and forced marriage – illegal practice Conceptualising forced marriage in an adult context, compared to the reality of a person being forced to marry Global Issue happening in Australia too
8:10	Clip 3 focus on mybluesky.org.au website	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Spotlight on Anti-Slavery Australia/Professor Jennifer Burn Purpose-developed mybluesky.org.au website as the go-to information source
10:05	Australian Forced Marriage Law Note: In Australia person under 16 cannot give consent to marry	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 2013 Forced Marriage Law Australian data Coercion, Threat, Deception
11:10	Clip 4 TEDx Presentation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Fighting forced marriage as honour-based abuse (can be a motivator) Presented by Jasvinder Sanghera, forced marriage survivor and founder of UK-based Karma Nirvana organisation Providing voice for victim/survivors
29:20	Australian forced marriage information Note: Australian marriage age is 18 (if parent permission and court order person 16-18 may be permitted to marry person over 18)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Methods used by perpetrators to force a person to marry another What does forced marriage look like in Australia? Identifiers/indicative behaviours Motivators – why it happens Impacts on the victim
33:40	Our Responsibilities as adults/professionals/community members	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Awareness and education Protection, prevention, support, advocacy (being the voice of those who often do not have a voice)
34:15	Referral Pathways Important: Never attempt to mediate between the victim/survivor and family (often the perpetrators of this crime)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Safe, consistent Referral Pathways <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ 000 Emergency ✓ AFP 131 237 (also for info/advice) ✓ mybluesky.org.au
35:05	Getting Help/Learning More	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Anti-Slavery Australia – mybluesky.org.au
36:05	ACRATH welcomes your contact	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ph 03 9645 5986 ACRATH National Office located in Albert Park, Victoria