

Forced Marriage in South Australia

EDUCATION & TRAINING OPPORTUNITY: FORCED MARRIAGE WEBINAR

Tuesday 6th October 2020 1.00pm – 2.15pm (ACST)

Be part of the Strategic Response to Forced Marriage in Australia: an issue which is present here in South Australia.

Raise awareness – Educate – Support - Empower – End exploitation

Forced Marriage Webinar (via Zoom) for Educators, Health Care and Child Protection Professionals, Community Groups, Frontline Responders and interested learners.

UNDERSTANDING FORCED MARRIAGE & RESPONDING APPROPRIATELY TO VICTIMS/SURVIVORS

The Forced Marriage Webinar will be facilitated by Liz Payne and Marilyn Ross (AFP). Liz is a member of ACRATH Victoria, who has worked in the area of Forced Marriage Awareness-raising, Education and Training across Australia for over 5 years.

Marilynn is a member of the Australian Federal Police and has many years of experience with Victoria Police and the AFP in the area of Human Trafficking and Modern Slavery.

This Education and Training Webinar will provide an overview of the Australian Legislation, an insight into the sensitivities and complexities in relation to forced marriage, unpack indicators and behaviours including those which may be 'hidden in plain sight' and will explore referral pathways and how to best support those in, or at risk of, forced marriage.

REGISTER AT: <https://www.trybooking.com/BLKYN>

INSPIRING
ACHIEVEMENT